Daniel Stock

Certificate in Work Education 2010

Daniel dreams one day of becoming an actor but he understands this is not going to be easy. He knows that he needs to work while he pursues his dream.

He completed the Certificate I in Work Education in 2010 and is currently working part-time at Harris Scarfe while studying for his VCE.

Daniel's part-time job came after completing a successful 3 week work placement in May last year.

Over his 2 years in the Work Education course Daniel also gained valuable work experience at Subway, Poyton's Nursery and Di Caprios Restaurant.

Daniel feels that Work Education at Kangan has not only helped him get ready for work but has also helped develop his confidence to pursue his ambitions.
